

HOUSING SERVICES

InterIm CDA provides housing services to help prevent homelessness and increase housing stability for people who are facing a housing crisis. For over three decades, InterIm – and its partner, the former IDHA -- have provided housing and supportive services with specific focus on the needs of immigrants, refugees, limited English speakers, and survivors of domestic violence.

EVICTION PREVENTION AND EMERGENCY RENTAL ASSISTANCE

- Financial Assistance - short term rent, utility and move-in costs
- Furniture and household furnishings
- School supplies and uniforms
- Education, training or employment related costs (food handlers permit)
- Diapers, baby clothes and baby food, grocery cards
- Security and safety (changing locks for security, light bulbs and lighting)

SOLACE PROGRAM

- Assistance to move families from shelters or transitional housing to safe, stable homes
- 13 apartment units in InterIm CDA properties are devoted to Solace transitional housing

CULTURALLY & LINGUISTICALLY SENSITIVE SERVICES

- Intensive case management services provided by multi-cultural staff who speak 10 different Asian and Pacific Island languages
- All the housing staff members are immigrants themselves and understand the challenges faced by our clients

